

The Road through the Hills Rod Smith

This story is a rueful tale, but I felt it's refreshing. A young man visit a village to study arcitec ture. He find "church street" but church isn't found. so, He ask an old woman the way to the church, ther he has strange experience..

First, I thing the old woman is strage, same to man. but when I find her sorrow, My opinion changed.

However, I didn't sad until last. The young man do wonderful behavior, and It made me smile.

I think, People eased their sorrow for few thing.

And this story tell us the way. It's kindness.

Kindness remind warmth. And that's exactly retrieve people from sorrw and loneliness.

William Shakespeare is a great man. I knew his life a little from this book.

This story was written by Will's friend, Toby.

He loved Will. They are friends. When Will was young, he was clever and naughty a little. He loved books and poetry and writers. I like books, too. But, I don't like poetry as much as Will. Will wrote a lot of play, and the plays make people laugh and cry. This is an amazement! He can move the people's hearts. I want to make my friends cheerful like Will.

Toby was also great. First, he was an actor, but he was not good at remembering words. So, he began to make costumes and properties for Will's play.

I thought this story got people to like Will and Toby. Only that. So I couldn't enjoy this story very much.

—⑨ This is a very shocking story for me.—

Heroine is Karen Silkwood, and this story begins with her death. I think her death was a mystery.

The keyword is "an envelope." She had the secret of the nuclear factory. For the factory, Karen was dangerous. I doubted the factory might kill her.

That factory is the pits. I hate the factory,

They knew the danger of uranium. Nevertheless, they let people work for money! It is fearful.

If Karen arrived at the meeting with the journalist, can we know what really happened? I quite want to know the truth. Maybe my reasoning is right.

「THE YEAR OF SHARING」

Harry Gilbert / OXFORD BOOKWORMS 2

I think that our future have more advanced science and more comfortable life than our. But in this book, our future are completely different from my idea. There are no cars, only bicycles. There are no cities, only villages. And the forests of the world are only for the wild animals.

Richard became twelve years old and have to do her Year of Sharing. He lived with deer's family. At first he didn't like it. But he gradually learn to share the world with other animals. At the end, he thought that he's animal just like them. I think so. We humans are animals too. We have to remember it. And we should think the way to live with animal.

Nowadays vampires are one of the most popular pattern of horror movie and story. I think "Dracula" is most popular story of vampire story. Although people don't know the whole story, they know the name of Dracula. I knew Dracula but I didn't read this book too. So this time I was pleased that I could read this book.

My image of vampires is that they are cool and fantastic. But they are un-dead and drink the blood of living people. People who was drunk their blood become vampire too! It is scary. But I like horror story very much. So that I enjoyed reading this story. I want to read other vampire stories.

"Radio Boy" John Escott Richmond Publishing

I felt this story's title romantic. "Radio" is a very romantic word. Somebodies living somewhere send their each stories to radio. We can listen to someone's dreamy real stories. Radio is the entrance to the exciting unknown work.

But I felt this story ended too soon. This end was so abrupt that I felt a bit discouraged (but I have expected that this story wouldn't be so long and complicated because this text is for starters).

I think that Steve is the hero and Anna is the heroine, It's unexpected that the heroine never meets the hero. I felt it unique .....

What's that red bottle finally? I was irritated that I couldn't know the true danger of "something bad" in the bottle. Why is its rabel written in the foreign language (like Russian)?

I felt this story ended at the opening part. I expect the another matter will happen once more after this text.
