Definite Articles

Students often find the rules for using articles ('a', 'an' and 'the') in English confusing. This unit focuses on the definite article, 'the', and provides guidelines, examples and practice.

1 Use of articles

Unless they are uncountable, all nouns need an article when used in the singular. The article can be either a/an or the. Compare:

- (a) Research is an important activity in universities.
- (b) The research begun by Dr Mathews was continued by Professor Brankovic.
- (c) An interesting piece of research was conducted among 200 patients in the clinic.
- In (a), research, which is usually uncountable, is being used in a general sense.
- In (b), a specific piece of research is identified, started by Dr Mathews.
- In (c), the research is mentioned for the first time, and the word 'piece' is used to 'count' the research.
- ▶ See Unit 2.12.3 Singular or plural? Uncountable nouns

2 Using definite articles

The rules for using the (the definite article) are quite complex.

- Decide why it is used, or not used, in the following examples.
 - (a) The world's fastest animal is the cheetah.
 - (b) The USA was founded in the eighteenth century.
 - (c) The government increased taxation in the 1970s.
 - (d) The French Revolution was partly caused by bad harvests.
 - (e) The New Scientist is published every week.
 - (f) The south is characterised by poverty and emigration.
 - (g) Pablo Picasso, the Spanish artist, was born in Malaga.
 - (h) The River Seine runs through the middle of Paris.
 - (i) The United Nations was founded in 1945.
 - (j) The euro was introduced in 2002.

In general, the is used with:

- (a) superlatives (fastest)
- (b) time periods (eighteenth century, 1970s)
- (c) unique things (government, world)
- (d) specified things (French Revolution)
- (e) regular publications (New Scientist)
- (f) regions and rivers (south, River Seine)
- (g) very well-known people and things (Spanish artist)
- (h) institutions and bodies (United Nations)
- (i) positions (middle)
- (j) currencies (euro)

It is not used with:

- (a) things in general (bad harvests)
- (b) names of countries (except for the UK, the USA and a few others)
- (c) abstract nouns (e.g. poverty, love)
- (d) companies/things named after people/places (e.g. Sainsbury's, Heathrow Airport)

Note the alternate forms:

The deserts of Australia are expanding.

Australia's deserts are expanding.

3 Practice A

Students often have problems deciding if a noun phrase is specific or not. Compare:

Climate change is a serious threat for many people. (not specific)

The Russian climate is characterised by long cold winters. (specific)

In the following sentences, decide if the words and phrases in bold are specific or not, and whether 'the' should be added.

Exa	nmple:
	inflation was a serious problem for Brazilian government.
Infl	ation was a serious problem for the Brazilian government.
(a)	engineering is the main industry in northern region.
(b)	insurance firms have made record profits in last decade.
(c)	global warming is partly caused by fossil fuels.
(d)	mayor has been arrested on suspicion of corruption.
(e)	moons of Jupiter were discovered in eighteenth century.
(f)	tourism is world's biggest industry.
(g)	forests of Scandinavia produce most of Britain's paper.
(h)	Thai currency is baht.
(i)	computer crime has grown by 200 per cent in last five years.
(j)	main causes of Industrial Revolution are still debated.
(k)	Already, 3 per cent of working population are employed in call centres.
(1)	latest forecast predicts warmer winters in next two years.
(m)	Research on energy saving is being conducted in Physics Faculty.
(n)	best definition is often simplest.

4 Practice B

Note the difference in meaning between:

A professor of French (one of several/many)

The professor of French (the only one)

Complete the following text by inserting a/an/the (or nothing) in each gap. (Note that in some cases, more than one answer is possible.)

The Origins of @

Giorio Stabile, a professor of (a) history at La Sapienza University in Rome, has demonstrated that (b) @ sign, now used in email addresses, was actually invented 500 years ago. Professor Stabile has shown that (c)
@, now (d) symbol of (e) Internet, was first used by (f) Italian merchants during (g) sixteenth century.
He claims that it originally represented (h) unit of volume, based on
(i) large jars used to carry liquids in (j) ancient Mediterranean world.
He has found (k) first example of its use in (I) letter written in 1546
by (m) merchant from Florence. (n) letter, which was sent to Rome,
